

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

We were born out of a belief, a belief that no organisation should be without an avenue to harness the power of effective media knowledge and application.

That belief has taken life and grown to be ZPIXEL, which is positioned as your dynamic Media Consultancy.

Our services not only include the whole spectrum of web and print media, but further expands to include branding and mobile development. We have handled projects for International brands like BP, Hermes, HP, Juniper Networks, Microsoft, Nokia, Wunderman and Yahoo!, to name a few. For local establishments, we have handled projects for HRM, MHA, NUH, SES (Singapore Exhibition Services), SMG (Singapore Medical Group), SPCA and Times Publishing. We also work very closely with SMEs to built up their profile.

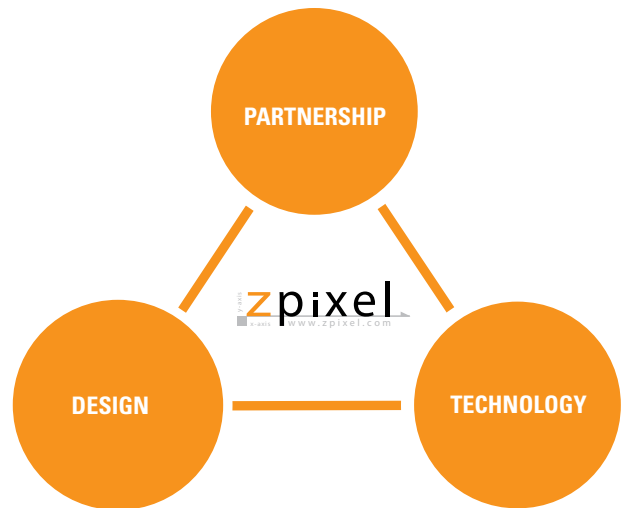

More than 6 years now, riding on the success of having had established ourselves, our aspirations remains the same - making our clients look good and to live the passion to create outstanding design. That is what drives us.

OUR UNIQUENESS

At ZPIXEL, our core value proposition lies with our robust partnerships amongst media professionals. This enables ZPIXEL to provide you an effective, creative and unbiased communications solution across all media channels.

We believe in not just providing outstanding designs, but to deliver it with excellent customer service and support. With our formidable team and our focus on technology, we are able to deliver top notch design work to make you look good. Thus, making us look good.

With every major accomplishment, we constantly remind ourselves to stay true to our passion for design and to provide the best customer service.

Design and Technology form our core foundation, with Partnership providing us the ladder to reach new heights.
